We can practise by talking to our friends, reading stories aloud, singing cheerful songs, and learning a few new words every day. Listening carefully to our teachers and speaking with confidence also helps us improve.

Sometimes, we may make small mistakes while speaking. We should not feel shy or worried because mistakes help us learn and become better. Every time we practise, we become more confident and fluent. With regular practice, patience, and a positive attitude, anyone can become a good English speaker.
