Q1. Read the passage and answer the questions that follow.

(1x3=3Marks)

Discipline is the necessity of life. A man without discipline can achieve nothing worthwhile in life. Discipline is necessary in every walk of human life. Without discipline there will be disorder and lawlessness. In a civilized society we cannot live without having some regard for the welfare of others. Children must obey their parents. In schools and colleges there must be discipline otherwise education will suffer. We find evidence of discipline all around us even in the world of nature and in the world of animals. Discipline costs nothing but it wins a lot.
