Questions and Answer:-

Q1.Why do you think our national movement supported the idea that all adult have a right to vote?

Ans - People from various backgrounds joined the struggle for freedom they were inspired by the idea of freedom, equality, and participation in decision making.

Under the colonial rule, the people had to live in fear of British Government. The British forced people to follow their order and decision which were at times very harsh.

Because of the continuous demand of the Indian National Congress, the Government of India Act 1909 was passed which allowed for some elected representation. The bitter experience of colonial rule and struggle for freedom movement left little doubt in the mind of the nationalist that all person in independent India would be able to participate in decision making or not.

Q.2 why do we need parliament?

Ans - A parliament is an elected system of government where people choosing their representatives, the people, form the government and participate in the decision-making process, thereby upholding democracy. The parliament of India is the absolute legislative authority.
